SESSION OVERVIEWS

Speaker bios are online at www.cooperativenetwork.coop

Ralph K. Morris Cooperative Leadership Symposium

Doug Wilson, Cooperative Resources International (Retired)

During this year's annual Ralph K. Morris Foundation Cooperative Leadership Symposium, Doug Wilson will present and discuss his experiences in the cooperative system. He will give perspectives on how the cooperative business model can retain relevance in an ever-changing world. Wilson's career in the AI industry spanned over 49 years – 39 of which were spent working at Cooperative Resources International, where he led the organization as CEO for the past 15 years.

Marketing the Cooperative Difference

Panel Discussion-Panelists Invited

Cooperatives are a distinctly unique business model with a widely held set of shared values and principles. Hear experiences, observations and discussion from leaders on the panel who represent various cooperative business sectors. Panelists will discuss how they have successfully promoted the cooperative difference to earn business and loyalty from both members and customers.

Economic Trends & Outlook

Dr. Terry Barr, Senior Director of Industry Research,
CoBank

Changes are occurring rapidly in economies around the globe. Lower commodity and energy markets have and will continue to affect key sectors of the U.S. economy. This update will provide insights on the current economic environment and deliver an outlook of economic and market changes. The session will cover key drivers underlying the U.S. economy and their relationship on the global stage. Explore these topics and discuss what they could mean for your business.
