SESSION OVERVIEWS

Speaker bios are online at www.cooperativenetwork.coop

Ralph K. Morris Foundation Leadership Symposium - Our Cooperative Moment: Capturing Co-op's Potential in Today's Economy

Doug O'Brien, President & CEO
National Cooperative Business Association CLUSA
International (NCBA CLUSA)

During this year's annual Ralph K. Morris Foundation Cooperative Leadership Symposium, Doug O'Brien will discuss how the cooperative community can capture the potential of the cooperative moment through advocacy, public awareness, thought leadership, and cooperative development – in other words, how co-ops can help answer this generation's most vexing challenges.

Change Management in the Cooperative World

Jon Kaupla, Executive Director
Center for Professional and Executive Development
Wisconsin School of Business

We're experiencing changes to the composition of the workforce: increased automation is replacing human tasks and jobs, more retirees are returning to work (or simply staying on part time), employees seeking work/life balance and greater flexibility/autonomy, and the increased influence of the "1099 economy."

As the keynote speaker for this year's annual meeting, Jon Kaupla will provide some proactive ideas for you to prepare for this significant change.

2018 Mid-term Elections Breakdown

Bill McCoshen, Managing Partner
Capitol Consultants

Blois Olson, Founder & Principal
Fluence Media

What will the results of the 2018 mid-term elections mean for cooperatives and their members in Wisconsin and Minnesota?

Two of the brightest political commentators from Wisconsin and Minnesota will converge during this session to break down the elections from both sides of the border. While the dust will still be fresh one week after the state and federal elections, these two strategists will explain what happened, why it happened, and what we should expect during the 2019 legislative sessions in Madison, St. Paul and Washington, D.C.
